Editors note.

Once more have the publisher the pleasure of presenting crafters and artists and theyer craft and art in a issue of The Euro*pean Leather, Shoe and Hide to a handful or two, readers around in Europe, America and Asia. This little magazin, as not do any demand on attention from anyone is sendt to those who are interested of it, who are interested of leather, art and craft. Most of them have one way or the other contributed to it from issue to issue, it's artists and crafters from around the world. And apart from the publishers interest of making a magazin do it also express a need for communication on this little spot of art and craft. It's the sixth time, this autumn, it's published, and the publisher thanks all who have been with on to make it real.
